23 February 2023

Dear Parishioners of St. Andrew and Our Lady of the Angels Parishes,

I wish to convey to you that, effective immediately, Father Christopher Shalla has been appointed as administrator of your parishes, in light of Father Beanish's leave of absence.

For the time being, Father Shalla will continue to reside in Barry's Bay and attend to the pastoral needs of your parishes. As was the case during Father Shalla's previous tenure in your parishes, the administration of the finances will be carried out by the parish secretary with the assistance of the parish finance councils.

I am very grateful to Father Shalla for his willingness to assume pastoral care of your parishes, and I thank you for welcoming him back among you.

Sincerely yours in the Lord,
